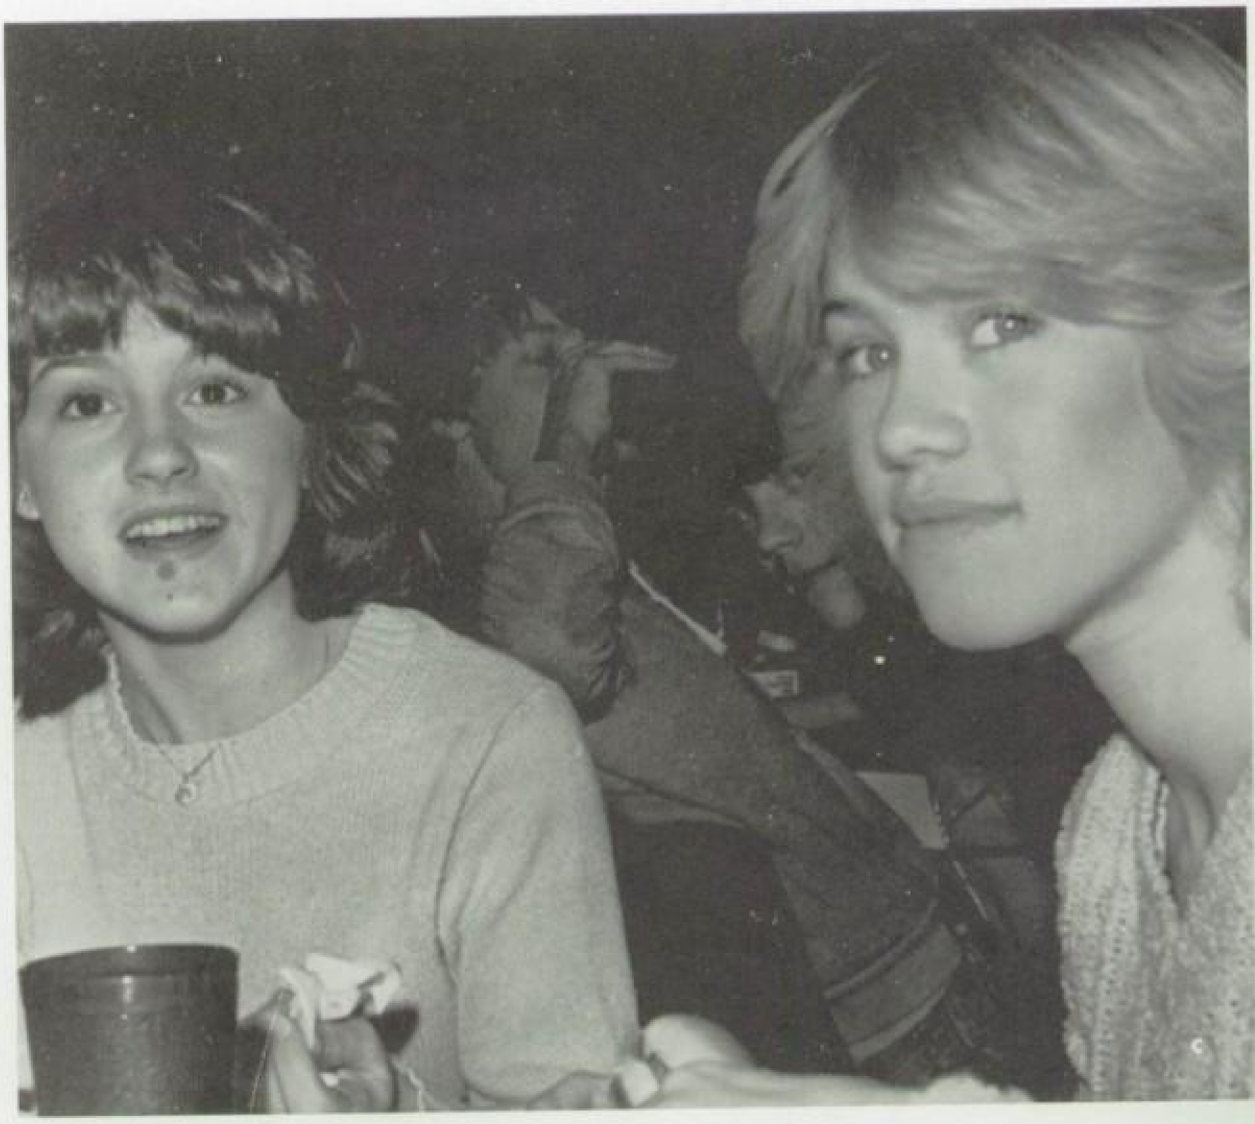
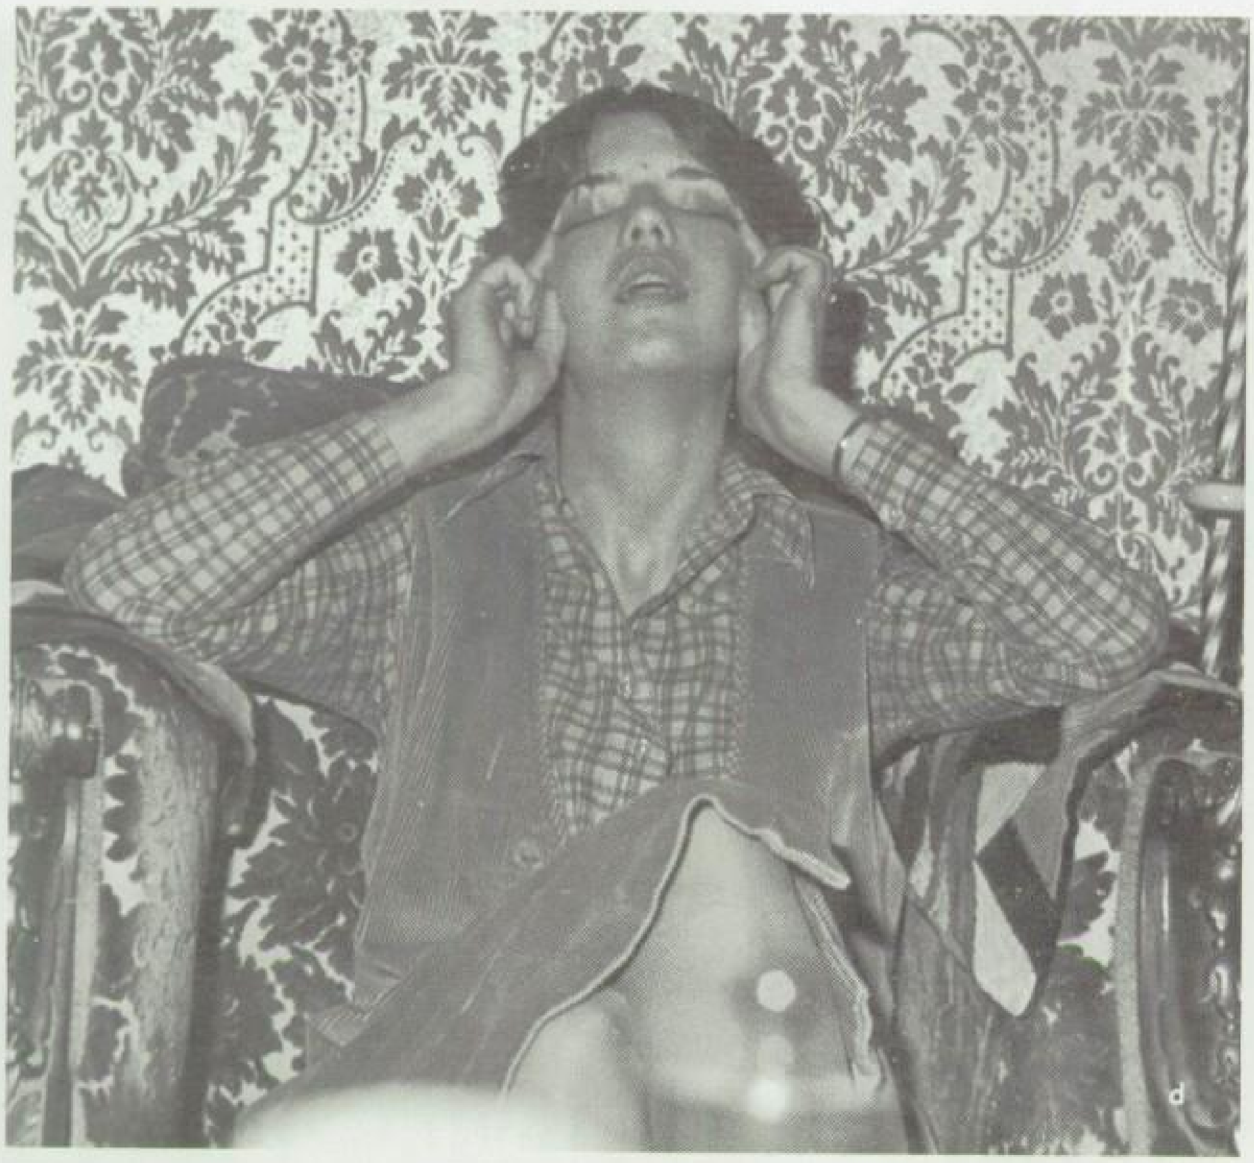
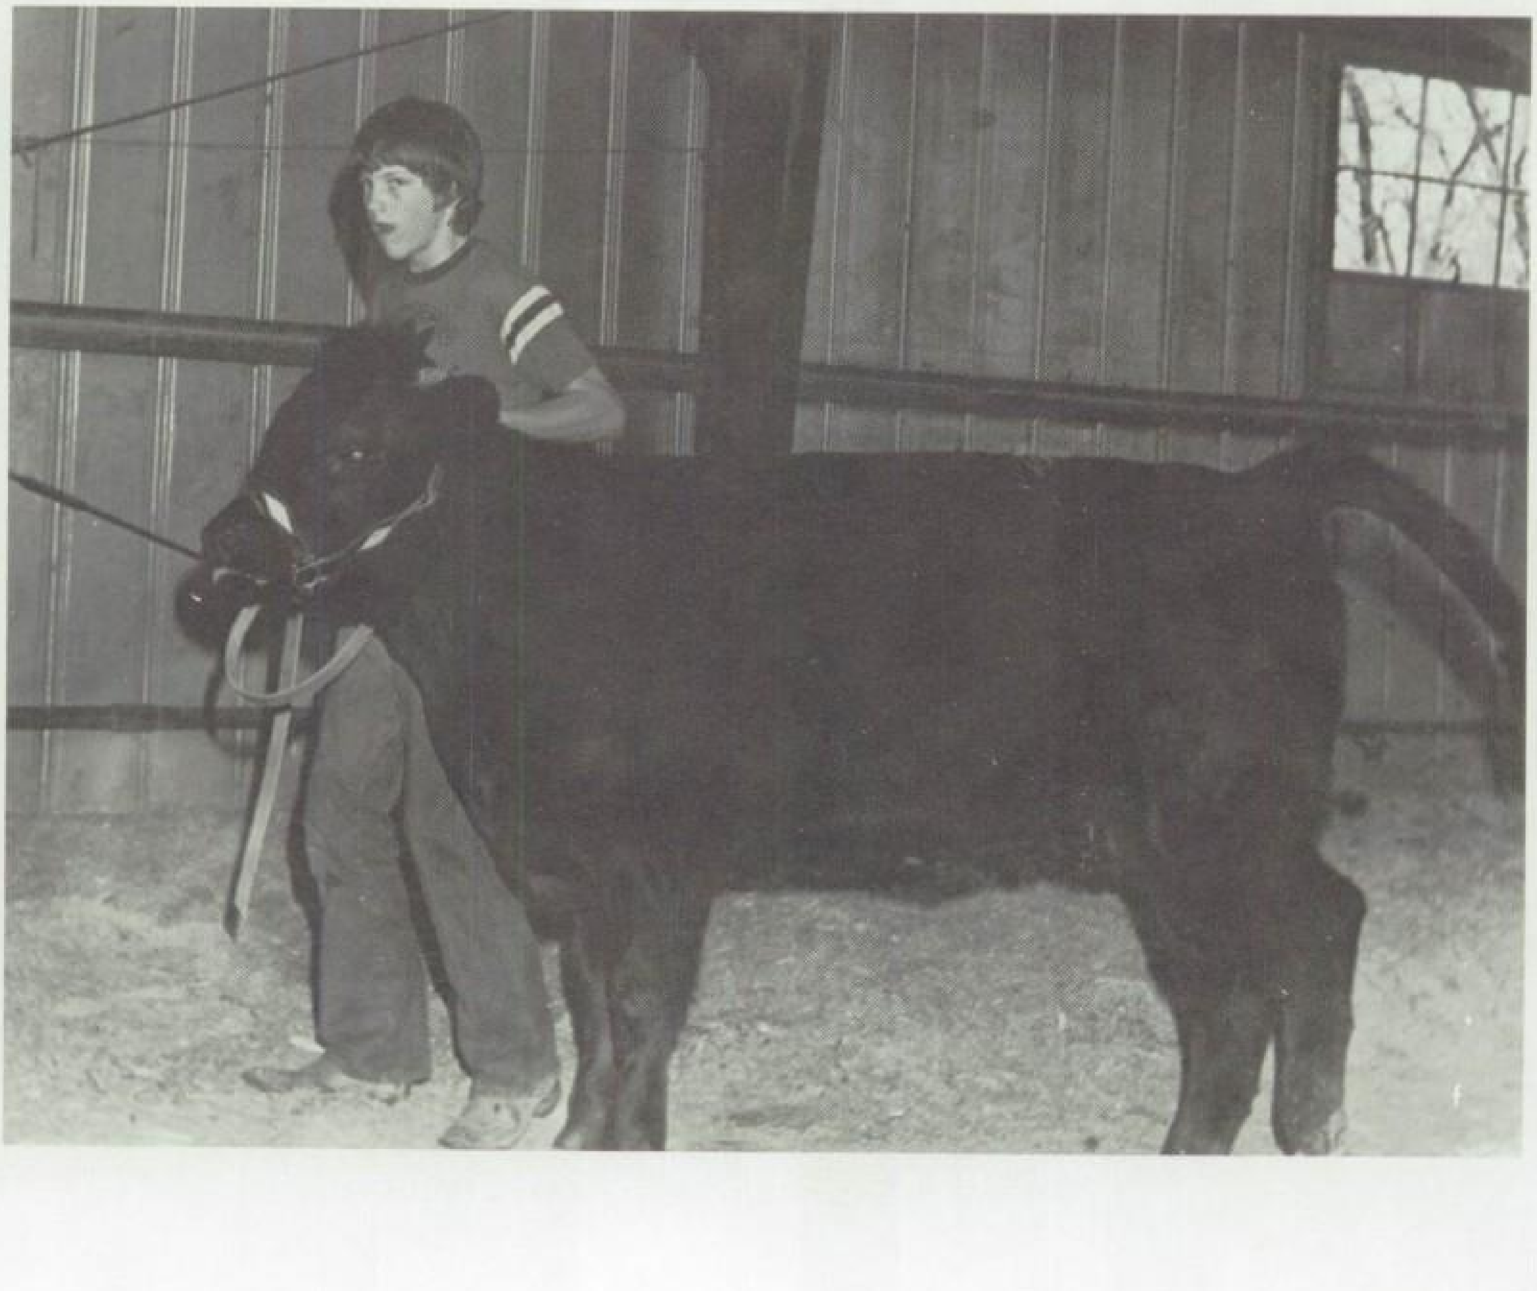
FRESHMEN ENJOY

a. Ann Harvey practices sign language.
b. Sheila Warner and Teresa Daniels prepare to go to class.
c. Kim Moore and Cindy Caskey "munch out."
d. Miss Rowland psyches herself up for her Freshman English class.
e. Wade Loftis "gets down" at the Valentine's Dance at the Canteen.
f. Jim Bob Williams parades his calf before the judges.

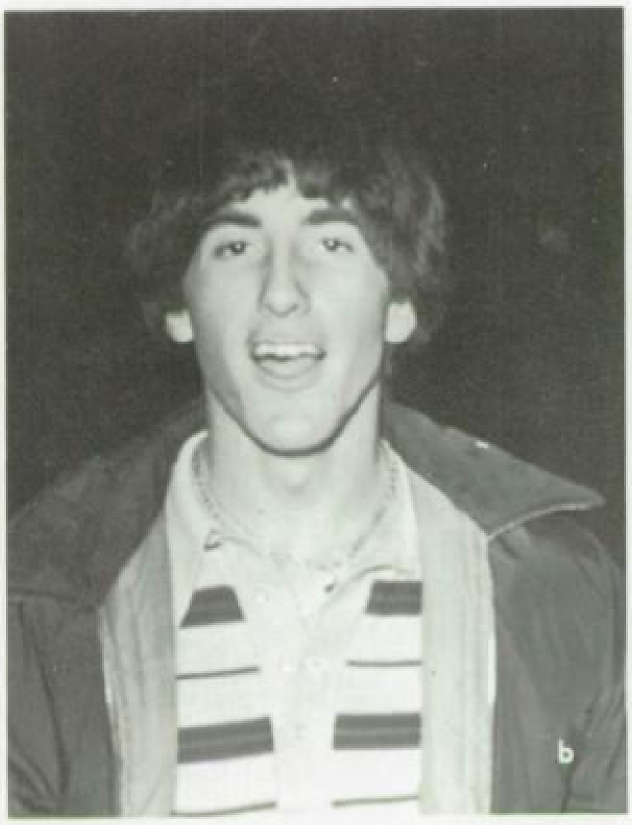


FIRST YEAR





a. Mrs. Gillespie tells the Home and Family Living students what it's all about.
b. Hey Lloyd: SURPRISE!!
c. Look out Trent, Karen seems pretty interested in those Civics answers!
d. G.H.S.'s three "Boogie" cheerleaders!



TRAIL'S END

Spring fever finally hit G.H.S., and it hit hard. Thoughts turned to graduation and warm summer days as everyone worked hard to finish research papers and projects, competed in U.I.L., band and speech contests, and struggled through finals. The annual various organization's banquets reminded us even more that the 1980-81 school year was coming to a close.

a. Jan Wallace shows how she can simultaneously eat a candy bar and dry her nails while Jamie Coley, Martha Stovall, and Christi Kirkland concentrate on other things.
b. The Steer candid cameraman snuck a look at a Civics class where Betsy Mobley, David Casteel, and Teresa Oliver busily worked. Alison Pitcock just stared while Mr. Little laughed on.
c. Two suspicious characters, alias Stan Peavy and David Casteel were found lurking in the hall. Could these be top secret papers?
d. The sight of Christi Kirkland, Rena Dalton, Nell Klutts, Sabrina Hanna and Amber Langford seriously studying was so unbelievable, we had to capture it on film.

The Senior play, "Young April," presented in a different arena style brought laughs and cheers while F.T.A. members travelled to the state convention in San Antonio bringing home a Top Ten Scrapbook award.

a. Is this a lovesick Mike Redden and Carolyn Kramer mooning over each other or are there interesting things on the floor and in the curtain wings? We may never know.
b. F.T.A. convention goers Donald Graham, Ann Harvey, Stan Peavy, and Sandra King listen to yet another profound statement from the lips of district president Robert Graham. It is thought that this bus might have actually been starting to head to Vernon with its passengers.
c. We bring you yet another rare picture of a senior, Dedra Underwood, studying diligently.

a. Mrs. McCracken gazes disgustedly (or wistfully) at the bake shop bag and Cokes fantasizing perhaps on the contents and calories! As F.T.A. sponsor, Mrs. McCracken dutifully attends all important club meetings such as this one.

b. Jackie Neal will tell you any day that complete concentration is the secret. Who could ever decipher shorthand otherwise?

c. One Steer candid cameraman, Jeff Clemons, is finally caught in the act. As punishment for revealing his identity, he was sentenced to ten days in the darkroom, drawing layouts and developing blank film.

d. Joanne Leming tries to warn everyone of the possible side effects of eating the cafeteria food. Unfortunately, the only person paying any attention to her was the person behind the camera.

REACHING THE TRAIL'S END ONLY TO BEGIN ANOTHER.

As the end of May grew closer, the dream of graduation became a reality for Seniors. Living, laughing and loving every minute, the days flew past leaving wonderful memories indelibly stamped on everyone's mind. Ending one phase of life and beginning another brought a new challenge to face and conquer. Using the past to build our future, may this book of memories bring back thoughts of the carefree, happy days as well as the trials of the 1980-81 year.

Jeff.

You're a special person to me. We've teased and horsed around a lot, but it was fun. I'm gonna miss you pulling dumb tricks on me and everybody else. I hope that you will continue to work at Morleys. I hope that you will do good at school next year and have a better annual. If you were a little older and I wasn't dating Harrell, I would tell you to look out. Your a terrific person and I really care for you a lot. I want you to always remember me and stay cool.

Best of Luck to you!
Love,
Jan Wallace

Jeffrey
You are a great guy.
Even tho' you did hit me in the back with a chunk of wood. Don't forget the time you and Johnny and I dusted the erasers.
They'll never know.
Be good and guess how
many times we can leave
class early next year!
Love
Marie
